

Thursday, May 2, 2019

“Dignity in the Face of Poverty, Crime and Racism in the American South”

Issac J. Bailey

South Carolina-based journalist and author Issac Bailey will discuss his compelling memoir, My Brother Moochie, about the far-reaching impacts of his brother’s violent crime and prison sentence, and how we can overcome divisions of poverty and race in our state. Bailey has served as a Neiman Fellow at Harvard University and a CNN commentator as well as a columnist for The Charlotte Observer and The Sun News.

The library is located at 41 St. Paul Place in Pawleys Island.
1st Thursday events begin at 10 AM and all adults are welcome.