This year marks 28 years The Glorymen have been traveling the southeast sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ. Since their beginnings in 1989 their motto has been “Sing to Him, Sing Praises to Him, Sing Glory to His Name” and that is exactly what they have done. Because they have held true to their motto, God has been faithful through the years and has provided the Glorymen with very talented individuals with a love for Christ and the audiences they sing to week after week. Lacy Pittman, bass singer and founding member of The Glorymen, began this journey twenty eight years ago. After a conversation and a few hours of practicing, the Glorymen was birthed as a traditional southern gospel quartet. Continuing with the traditional sound and pure clean harmonies their audiences have come to love, but now as a mixed quartet, Lacy joins together with Tiffany Shealy of Leesville, South Carolina, Mike Bolen of Holly Hill, South Carolina and Chip McCaa of Lugoff, South Carolina.
